An Evidence-Based Education Model that Delivers Real-World Results

The Administrative Intervention® workshop introduces you to the key components of the Boys Town Education Model®, a school-based, multi-tiered program that provides all students with the positive behavior support they need to improve their behavioral and social/emotional deficits and find success in the classroom.

The Education Model is a proactive, whole-child solution to classroom challenges. Schools that implement the Model experience notable changes:

- » Reduced office referrals and disruptive behaviors
- » Increased academic engagement and instruction time
- » Increased on-task behaviors among students
- » Increased job satisfaction among staff members

Don't let your academic mission be derailed by ineffective and arbitrary discipline decisions. Learn how to implement an effective referral process that's clear, consistent and, most of all, constructive.
